You'd stop that leak instantly. How about your house? Is there any leakage there? A house is really a purse with lots of money in it. This wet weather is hard on your roof and unless properly looked after every cent's worth will leak out. Better see me now.

QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY.

Reception at the Home of the British Commissioner.

The reception at the British Consulate in Palama yesterday afternoon was a most fitting celebration of Queen Victoria's seventy-eighth birthday. It was a pleasure for all loyal Britons to break away from the daily routine of work and pay a tribute of honor to a lady who for sixty years has ruled over England and has commanded the respect of all nations of the globe.

The decorations at the Consulate were elaborate and attractive. A large British flag was draped over the entrance of the veranda. Large palms and potted plants were set about here and there on the veranda and in the house. Out on the lawn were stretched from tree to tree flags of other nationalities. Refreshments were served on the lawn. The Government band, stationed in one corner of the lawn, gave a delightful concert during the reception.

Capt. A. G. S. Hawes, the British Commissioner, received his guests on the open veranda. He was assisted in this by Mrs. Thomas Rain Walker, wife of the Vice British Consul, and Miss Elise Gay of Kauai. President Dole, Minister Cooper, Attorney General Smith and members of the Diplomatic and Consular Corps, were among the guests.

NO MORE "FIVES."

Both banks were unable to supply their customers with five-dollar notes today. The Finance Department issued about $2000 in notes of this denomination but a short time ago and they are very scarce now. There is a great demand for the smaller notes among the merchants.
